

Local and Miscellaneous.

Do not be taken much when you go to the West. There are many good men and women there, but there are also many bad ones.

Interesting matter on every page.

Queen Victoria teaches a Bible class every Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore will winter in Paris.

It is stated that an English company have undertaken to build the railroad from Shingle Springs to Carson City and Virginia.

The emigration from Canada to the United States is said to be immense, numbering out of Canada, and de-flecting seriously the cities.

Gov. Thomas Francis Meagher, of Ireland, receives intelligence of the country this summer.

New. EXAMINER.—The Washington Chronicle, Baltimore Commercial, New York Sun, New Orleans Picayune, and several new exchanges are coming to the Federate, asking us to "Ex." That's flattering to the "biggling" of the desert.

The Democrat, Miner, The Humboldt (Nev.) Register says: Prospecting continues almost as lively as ever. It is strange how the passion for finding new diggings will last on a man who once allows himself to be in front of a frying pan and a bundle of blankets, and the ridge-pole of a wire-hacked horn.

The venerable father of Gen. Grant is the recipient of marked and respectful attention in Washington. On being questioned as to the early characteristics of the son, he replied: "Never saw him" when his girl, when a boy but once, and that was trying to break a vicious colt. It was a tough fight but the colt had to surrender."

The homestead of Henry Clay was sold on the 20th ult. to the regent of Kentucky University for the sum of $90, 000. The proceeds of $25,000, and will be transformed into the Agricultural College of that State. Mrs. J. B. Clay gives immediate possession. The estate thus becomes public property, to be dedicated to a noble purpose.

UNEXPECTED ARRIVAL.—Unlooked for, and in all his strength, came General Frost into this Zion of the Saints, on Tuesday night last, and will continue to serve command, nights and mornings.
Many who experienced premonitory symptoms of Spring fever have since completely changed their tone and tune.

A fatal duel is reported to have occurred lately between Charles Anderson and a man named Lewis, on Sinker Creek, about ten miles below Moulton-worth's Mill, in Owyhee county, Idaho.
A dispute occurred in regard to some bay, when a fight commenced, with knives, which ended in the death of both parties. One shot immediately, and the other lived but a short time.

PROGRESSIVE UNFORTUNATE.—It is a consolatory and encouraging evidence of the sympathy of our people for the unfortunate, says the New Orleans Picayune, that the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate is without legs, and the Doorkeeper of the House without arms, and the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House both are quæshes.

To give some idea of the amount of business done between Boise City and Owyhee, says the Boise Statesman, it may be noted that the house of B. M.
Dunell & Co. sold to one Arm in Boise City, good to the amount of over eighty-eight thousand dollars in the space of four months ending November 1st. If that be a single item the entire amount of business must reach some hundreds of thousands per month.

A CALIFORNIA Farmer, who wished to invest the accumulations of his industry in United States securities, went to Jay Cooke's office, to procure the trustworthy notes. The clerk inquired what denomination he would have them in. Having never heard that word used, except in referring to the religious sects, he, after a little deliberation replied: "Well, you may give me to please the old 'fiddies,' but give me the best on in Free Will Baptist."

WASHINGTON society is entering upon the gay season in earnest. Nearly all the Cabinet officers, many of the Senators, the members of the House, and many of the members have announced weekly or fortnightly receptions during the season; while a number of private parties and dinners are announced in the circulars. The ladies of the Presbyterian household will be at home on Tuesday evenings, and will give a dinner in reception on Friday evenings.
Secretary and Mrs. McCulloch's evening reception will take place on Mondays.

Mr. Secretary Stanton will receive every Saturday evening. Mrs. Secretary Weller will be at home on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Secretary and Mrs. Harris will be at home on Friday evenings.
Mrs. Attorney General will receive on Monday afternoons from two to four o'clock. Who wouldn't be able to attend Washington, D. C.?

Just married men & women From every state & country over the sea We give the best wedding gifts MUCHO MUCHO MUCHO

The body and the mind by links More better than man and wife, For better than any other wed.

Like two ill-tempered bounds, a sad And two ill-tempered bounds, they stand With us, and they stand, and they stand Two feet, just enough to stand.

Then all the subject goes pursue,
And you're the last to trust, But this to fit and carbuncle stoops, In courage, speed and breath.

Life's course well run, come cheerful in Together in the death;

People behind the times should be fed on ketchup.

In female schools the demand is for principals—not men.

Why are Macaulay & co. confirmed sinners? Ans.—Because they have hardened vices.

A proposition is afoot to London, to erect a monument to Tom Stuver, as one of "England's heroes!"

MAN, while he loves, it is said, is never quite depraved. This depends upon whether it is a love for rum or women—for good or bad spirits.

MARBIET Marcella, the author, is a confirmed invalid.
She has been confined to her bed for many months, and it is not expected that she will recover.

TIME is the only gift in which God has stinted us; for He never entrusts us with a second moment until He has taken away the first, and never leaves us certain of a third.

WHEN a man and woman are made one by a clergyman, the question is, which is the one. Sometimes there is a long struggle between them, before this matter is finally settled.

LAURA—"Now don't forget, Charley, to ask Captain Butter for his photograph. He's promised it so often. But the poor man has got no head at all." Charley—"Then he won't have the face to refuse."

ATTENTION BATTALION.
WHAT everybody says must be true, and all agree, that the best place in Utah Territory to obtain a square meal is at Forscutt's Union Restaurant,

Camp Douglas.

Officers and Gentlemen residing at Camp Douglas have already learned where they can obtain the best board on the most advantageous terms and patronize this house, extensively but there is room for more.

Soldiers and transient residents will find a well filled house, and the civilian even admiring them and of which they can avail themselves at all hours of the day.
